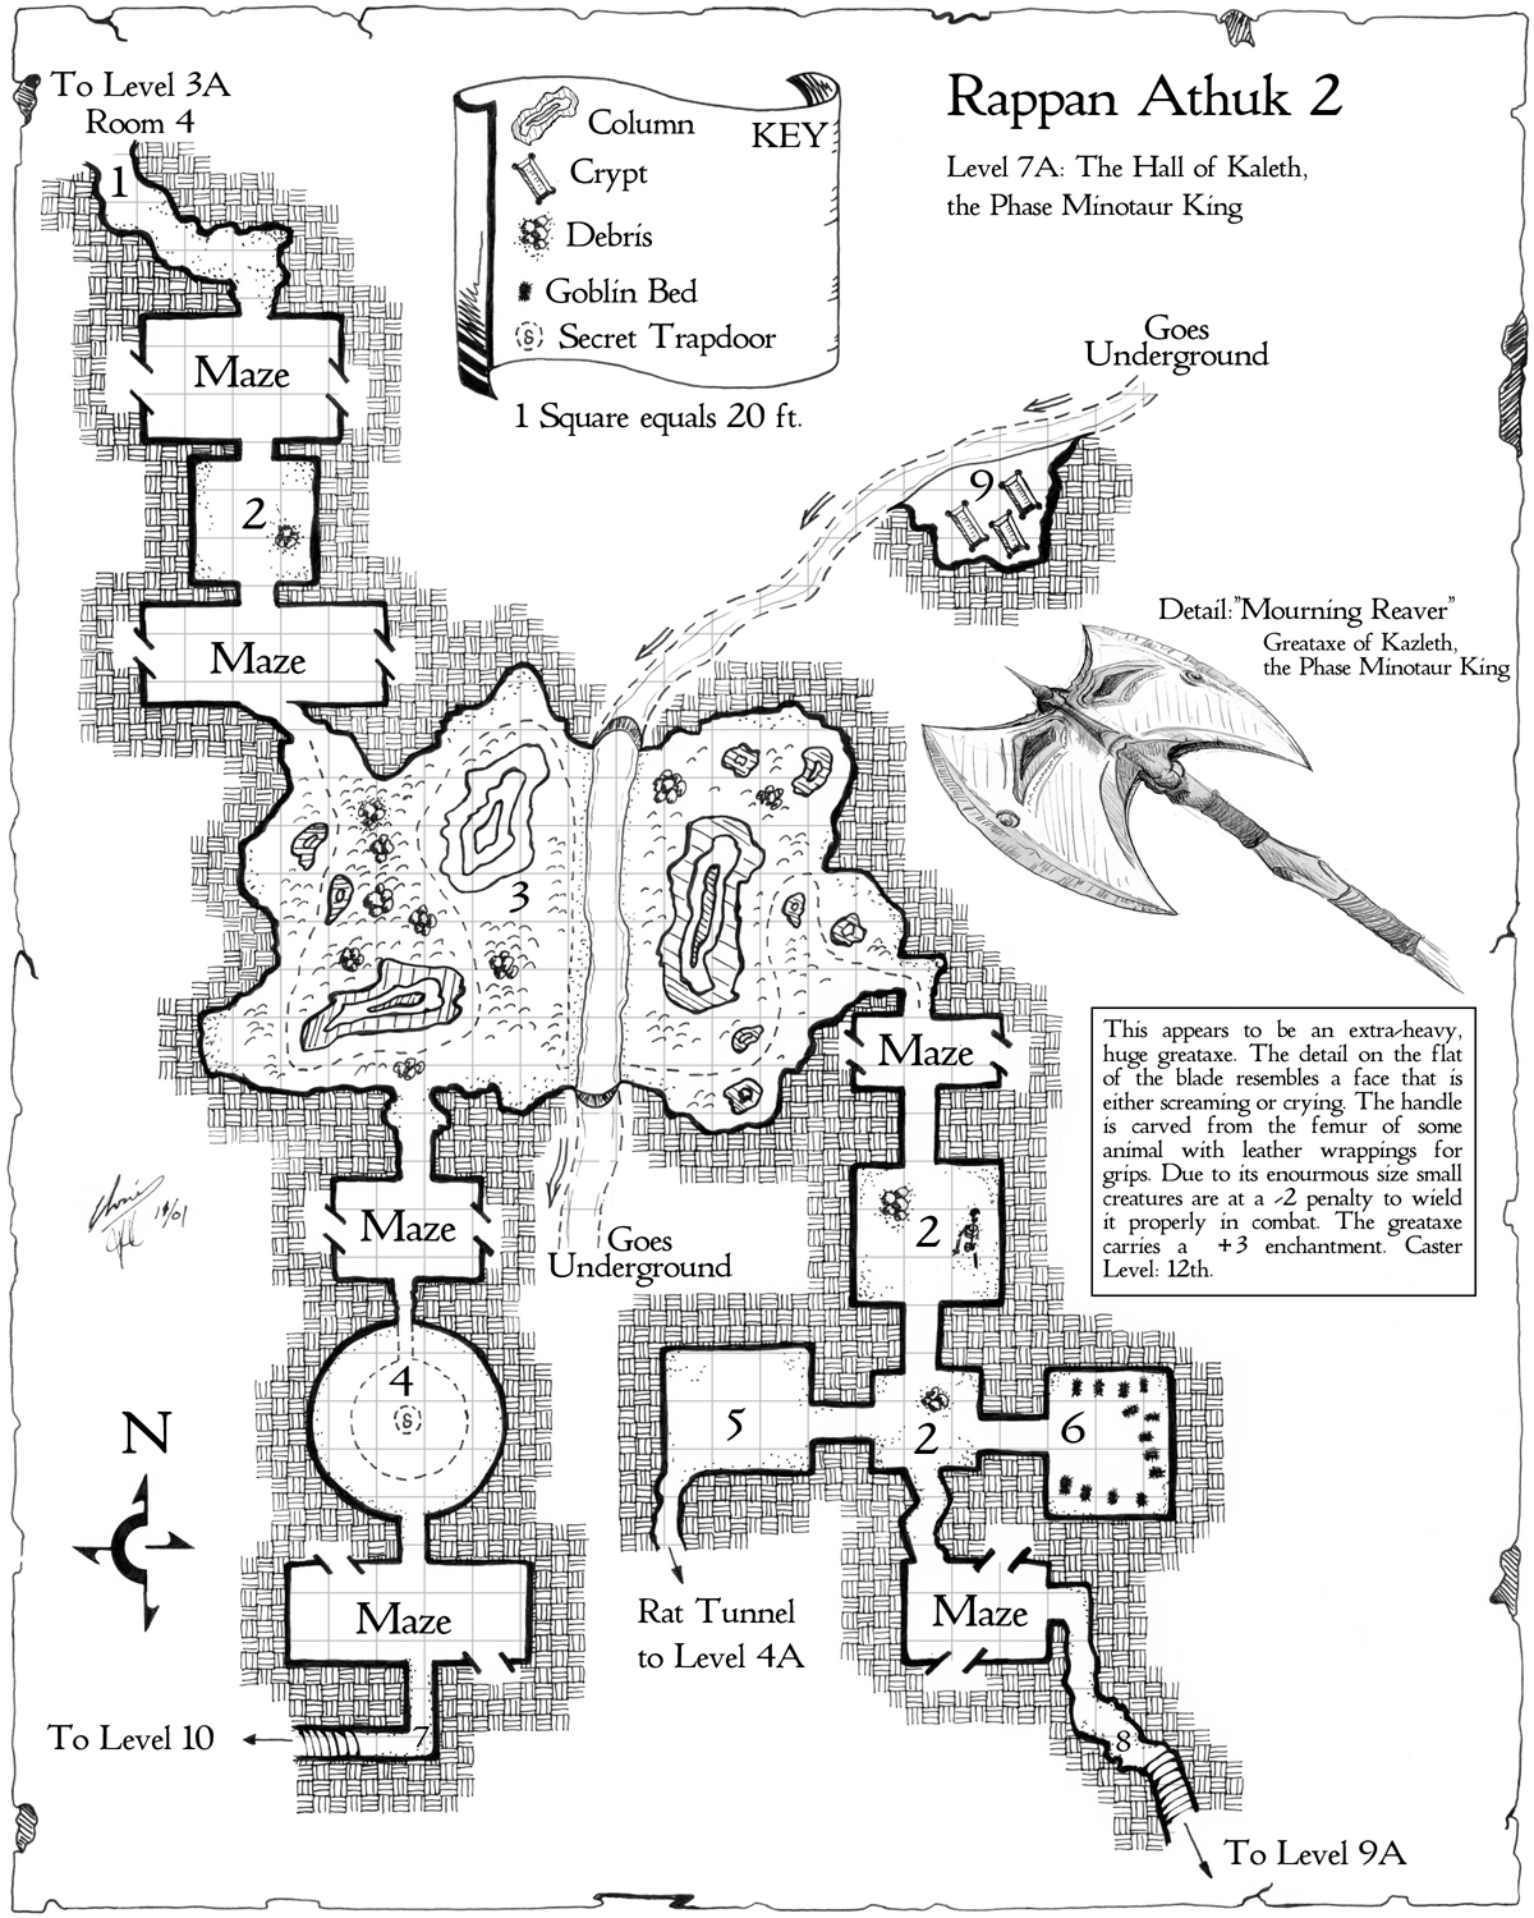
Rappan Athuk 2

Level 7A: The Hall of Kaleth, the Phase Minotaur King



This appears to be an extra-heavy, huge greataxe. The detail on the flat of the blade resembles a face that is either screaming or crying. The handle is carved from the femur of some animal with leather wrappings for grips. Due to its enourmous size small creatures are at a -2 penalty to wield it properly in combat. The greataxe carries a +3 enchantment. Caster Level: 12th.
