‘Satan worshipping star travellers blamed for West Virginia mayhem !! ‘Lucifer’s servants’ to blame says local seer.

West Virginia law enforcement authorities seeking to unravel the mysterious spate of disappearances and cattle mutilations besetting the state need search no further according to a famous ‘wise woman’ and self proclaimed psychic - for the answer lies in the stars above !!

The last few weeks have been deeply troubling ones for the rural communities of Tucumseh and Lowery Counties in West Virginia as herds of sheep and cattle there have been subjected to bizarre and sickening night attacks. In most cases, authorities have declined to give details of the damage inflicted - but local gossip would have it that the animals have been savaged and partially eaten - and in some cases drained of blood entirely !

Worse still, Lowery County has suffered through a total of nine disappearances - with farmers and other rural employees going missing in strange, worrying and uncharacteristic circumstances.

Although doubtless vexed, the police can now direct their enquiries to a single source - according to Lowery County mystic Chryssy ‘Crystal’ Vickersen. The self-proclaimed ‘Mistress of the Mind’ declared to our reporter that the police should be calling out the National Guard to set a trap for the perpetrators - evil Satanists from outside our very own Solar System !!

‘I saw them in a vision, as clear to me as the hand in front of my face. They told me that they were the Devil’s Children, come to terrorize good Christians and they would never be stopped - unless it was through the power of prayer and mind energy’ said Crystal at her home yesterday. She continued ‘They chose to reveal this to me as they see me as a respected enemy and are fearful of my mind-fu. I can only urge the people of this County and this State to do their brain-meld exercises and pray to the Almighty - otherwise they could be the next victim to be whisked away and sacrificed to Lucifer on their hellish homeworld’- a homeworld which is apparently ‘somewhere near the Horsehead Nebula’ according to ‘Crystal’.

Regular readers may recall some of Crystal’s earlier visions in which she predicted a second Biblical Flood in 1993 and the return of Jimi Hendrix as a Presidential candidate by the end of the millenium.

The Lowery County Sheriff’s Department could not be called upon to comment upon Mrs Vickersen’s information except to say that they continued to treat recent events in the County ‘with the utmost gravity’ and they implored anyone with any information to come forward.

They declined to comment on whether they had any positive leads to pursue.
