

What They Want. Free the cavia nibbles from captivity.

Personality. Blossom Chasters is friendly and kind, though she doesn't speak much. When she does speak, though, her word choice is either wise or hilarious (or, both) wise and hilarious). She has a deep love for all creatures, especially those abandoned or uncared for.

Goliath female – Animal rescuer

What They Want. Rescue his husband from whatever is in that thick.

Personality. Aloysios Blatt is typically good-natured and humorous, but he's also cautious to a fault. He also knows his limitations, which is why he's hesitated to chase after his husband after he failed to return from the nearby thick. His good nature has given way to bottled-up grief and frustration.

Tiefling male – Talented landscaper

What They Want. Make sure everyone is heard before a deal is made.

Personality. Unlike many other criminals, L.J. likes to listen as much as possible before they choose their course of action. They like to think as far ahead as possible to avoid violence, since violence is not sustainable for any long-lasting enterprise (though they can break legs with the best of them.)

Nonbinary half-elf – Thoughtful criminal

What They Want. Move his bakery to the northern part of Hillstar, hopefully while paying off his loan somehow.

Personality. Regis Matterhook is an endearing older human who loves to bake sweet treats. He has lots of stories to share, though none of them seem to explain why he chose to shape his baked goods into little devils. He tries to include his cats in the conversation as much as possible.

Human male – Gifted baker

Damithia Clop
(damm-ITH-ee-ah CLOPP)
Human female – Exclusive collector
Personality. Damithia Clop's eye for interesting, eclectic, and bizarre collections is unmatched. She's amiable and quick to chat about her collections (and the adventures she went on gathering them)!
What They Want. To make sure her vast collections are remembered forever.

Miqwen Goldhearted
(MI-kwen GOULD-hart-edd)
Dragonborn (gold) female –
Reserved mage

Miqwen Goldhearted
(MI-kwen GOULD-hart-edd)

Personality. Miqwen Goldhearted is a gifted magician who specialized in chance and probability. She often ponders the effect her choices will have on the multiverse; as a result, she tends to seem preoccupied. Many assume this is coldness, but it's not—Miqwen truly is gold-hearted.
What They Want. To adopt a child, give them a good life, and train them in magic.

Personality. T Chad Bactista knows that there's a fine line between stupid and clever—it's a line his entire career has straddled. T Chad is gregarious, impulsive, and quick to draw people in...or push them away.

What They Want. Convince his estranged bandmates to start making music with him again.

Half-elf male – Wild entertainer

Personality. Jubs, when he was alive, was a reclusive author, "Jubs" here is really Erhny Dang, a thief who killed Jubs and is trying to assume his persona. Erhny is cool-headed, calm, and quite good at lying. He pretends to be friendly and conversational, even when things aren't going his way.

What They Want. To get the money Hasseldonk promised to Jubs, then leave town.

Halfing male – Noted author

Half-orc female – Superb artist

Roth Luurig
(RAWTH LER-ig)

Roth Luurig
(RAWTH LER-ig)

Personality. Roth Luurig's huge talent as a visual artist is matched by an equally huge personality. She is funny, foul-mouthed, and a fast friend. She also tries to hide a huge defeatist streak that often undermines her choices as an artist. What They Want. Get her paintings back so her first art show is a success.
