AGLA1-4 THROUGH TWILIGHT BOUGHS

AGLA06 Friend of Aldaron the Loremaster

You rescued Aldaron the Loremaster from a deadly attack. He is very grateful and has offered to assist you in the future should you need to draw upon his expertise in ancient history and the Feywild. You may contact Aldaron in person any time you are in the city of Veltalar in Aglarond. If you have rituals or other abilities that allow you to communicate across great distances, then you might be able to contact Aldaron from other locations, if allowed by the DM. The DM will also decide exactly what form Aldaron's assistance might take and what benefits you can gain from this assistance in any given situation.

AGLA07 Through Twilight Boughs

You have learned much about the Tome of Twilight Boughs, an ancient and cryptic Yuir text that seems to hold great significance to the members of the Cult of Voldini in Aglarond. You and your companions have thwarted the Cult's efforts for the moment. However, the rituals contained in the book do not seem to do quite what the cult members were expecting, a mystery that surely requires further investigation.

This story object is the continuation of the Major Quest that began in AGLA1-1 Lost Temple of the Fey Gods and concludes in AGLA1-7 Twilight Ambitions.
