SPEC2-1 PI BLINKING EYE OF FIRE

SPEC26 Knowledge of the Companion

You rescued an eladrin sage named Sikulis who believes that he has discovered how to manipulate the divine energy of the Companion, the second sun which shines in the sky above the nation of Elturgard. For now, Sikulis continues to reside in Elturel, but his relationship with the churches of Torm and Amaunator remains fragile.

Sikulis is also an expert on matters relating to the Spellplague and plaguechanged creatures. If you should ever had need of his knowledge, he would be more than happy to assist you in any way that he can. Contacting Sikulis via Sending or some other appropriate ritual, magic item, or power, could grant you a bonus to knowledge checks or reveal other information on these subjects, at the DM's discretion.

Note: You may only earn one of the following two story awards (SPEC27 and SPEC28) in this adventure, and it is possible to earn neither. Strike through the text of any awards that you did not receive.

SPEC27 Tyrangal's Thanks

You assisted the enigmatic Tyrangal with her goals in Elturgard. She seems to have her eye on all sorts of situations unfolding around the world; perhaps someday she will call upon you to act as her agent once more.

SPEC28 Law and Order

You upheld the laws of Elturel and for so doing have earned the thanks and respect of the theocracy. When next the paladins have need of heroes, they are certain to remember your name.
