Foreword

Pretty much every fantasy campaign has some kind of pub or tavern visit during game play. It can sometimes be a real pain to think of descriptive beverages for your players to choose whilst in that environment.

In this supplement is designed to help in the exercise of building every aspect of a tavern for a fantasy game.

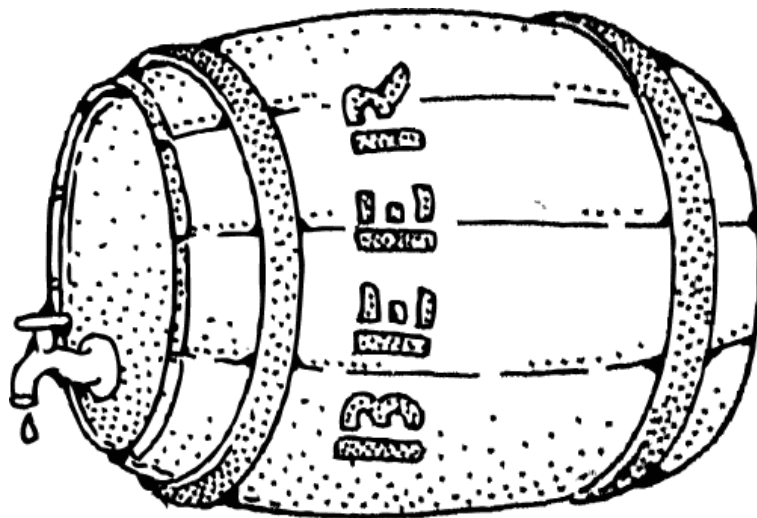

It can be used to either simply choose from, or indeed build up a definitive pub drinks menu for your players to choose from during a game.

This is the first supplement in the Tavern series, and other titles will follow to include; fantasy food, tavern patrons and fantasy tavern names.

All of these will help create fun and quick taverns, inns and pubs without effort, and ease the pressure on the GM, and allow more fluid game play.

There are 100 assorted beverages here, all with a brief note to add detail for your thirsty travellers!

Enjoy!

Grim
