EARLY RELEASE PDF

Gavin here with a few notes on this PDF.

This is a pre-release PDF for Kickstarter backers and pre-order customers.

- ▶ Some artwork is present, but you'll see many grey boxes where more art is to come.
- ▶ The text itself is finished and complete.
- ▶ Over the coming months, I'll periodically update the PDFs with the latest artwork. You'll get a notification that a file in your library at DriveThruRPG has been updated, and will be able to download the new version.

Proofreading Feedback

When you're reading this book or using it in your games, if you notice anything that seems wrong, please let me know! I won't be sending the books off to the printers until September-ish, so there's plenty of time for any remaining sneaky errors to be fixed. The following points are especially of interest:

- ▶ Typos: Obviously, I've run the text through a spell checker, but typos can still sneak in.
- ▶ Layout errors: Wrong page references? Erroneous or inconsistent formatting?
- ▶ Unclear wording: I've put great effort (with the help of many proofreaders!) into making the rules easy to understand, but who knows, maybe new sets of eyes on the text will notice something that could be made clearer.
- ▶ Rules accuracy: For those readers who are familiar with the 1980s B/X rules, please keep an eye out! Our aim is for the content of this book to be a direct clone of the original B/X rules—except where noted in the Author's Notes document. If you spot anything that rings alarm bells, please let me know.

INTRODUCTION

TREASURES

Dwarf-forged helms and breastplates gleaming among the rusted remnants of ancient armouries.

Spheres of purest crystal swirling with dark mists ready to coalesce into visions of places far distant at the touch of one versed in the arcane arts.

Alchemical brews—fizzing and frothing, swirling with rainbow hues, or flashing with unnatural radiance—their odd properties only revealed to one who dares take a sip.

Rune-engraved rings of brass, silver, or mithral, which grant powers to bend the will of others, to disappear from sight, or to deflect baleful magic.

Swords of opalescent star-metal, imbued with a strange sentience that may threaten to overwhelm the mind of one who dares to wield their power.

Wands and staves charged with arcane energies, ready to unleash fire, ice, or lightning at the command of one worthy of their power.

These are the wondrous treasures of the classic fantasy genre, lurking in tombs and hoards to entice player characters of all experience levels!

- Objects: Anything placed inside the bag vanishes from existence after 1d6+6 turns.
- Living creatures: May be affected, but only if the entire creature fits inside the bag.

Bag of Holding

A normal-looking small sack that can magically hold large objects and weights.

- Size: Objects of up to 10'×5'×3' can fit inside the bag.
- Weight: Up to 10,000 coins of weight can be placed in the bag.

CFT03: W 59mm H 52mm

Boots of Levitation

The wearer is able to move up and down through the air at will.

- Vertical: The caster mentally directs vertical movement at up to 20' per round.
- Horizontal: The caster can push against solid objects to move laterally.
- Weight: A normal amount of weight can be carried while levitating.
- Usage: The enchantment may be used without limit of frequency or duration.

Boots of Speed

The wearer is able to move at up to 240' (80')—the speed of a riding horse.

- Duration: This can be maintained for up to 12 hours.
- Rest: Afterwards, the wearer must rest for 1 day.

Boots of Travelling and Leaping

The wearer is able to travel without tiring and leap great distances.

- Tirelessness: The normal need for rest when travelling may be ignored (see Wilderness Adventuring in Core Rules).
- Jumping: The wearer can leap up to 10' high and 30' horizontally.

Broom of Flying

A broom that can be commanded to fly, carrying the owner aloft.

- Speed: The broom flies at 240' (80').
- Passengers: An additional passenger may be carried. When carrying two people, the broom's speed is 180' (60').

Crystal Ball

Allows an arcane spell caster to view any place or object that is brought to mind:

- Duration: The vision lasts for one turn.
- Clarity: The clarity of the vision is dependant on the sryer's familiarity with the subject.
- Usage frequency: A crystal ball may be used at most 3 times a day.
- Casting spells: It is not possible to cast spells through a crystal ball into the viewed scene.

Crystal Ball With Clairaudience

The sryer can hear, as well as see, the desired scene.

Crystal Ball With ESP

Allows the sryer to spy on the thoughts of creatures viewed in the crystal ball:

- Reading thoughts: The thoughts of a single creature viewed through the crystal ball may be read.
- Meaning: The sryer understands the meaning of all thoughts even if they do not share the creature's language.
- Obstructions: The ability to perceive thoughts is obstructed by a thin layer of lead or by rock of 2' thick or greater.

Displacer Cloak

A cloak that bends light, making one who wears it appear to be 5' away from their true location.

- Save bonus: The wearer gains a +2 bonus to saving throws against petrification, rods, spells, staves, and wands.
- Melee attacks: Against the wearer are penalised by -2.

Drums of Panic

Large war drums that induce panic in those who hear their sound.

- Range: Creatures up to 240' away, are affected, when the drums are played. Those within 10' of the drums are not affected.
- Affected creatures: Are afflicted by the drums' enchantment of fear: they must save versus spells or make a morale check with a -2 penalty (if the optional morale rules are being used—see Morale in Core Rules).
- Effects: Creatures that fail the saving throw or morale check flee from the sound of the drums at full running speed for 30 rounds.

Efreeti Bottle

A 3' tall, weighty jug with a sealed stopper. Breaking the seal and removing the stopper releases a trapped efreeti (see Classic Fantasy: Monsters), who will serve the character.

- Frequency of service: The efreeti will serve the one who freed it (and only that character) once per day.
- Duration: After 101 days, its service ends. The creature then returns to its home—the legendary City of Brass.
- If the efreeti is killed: Its service ends.

Elemental Summoning Device

Ritual items enchanted with the power to summon beings from the elemental planes. Each elemental plane has a different type of device:

- ▶ Air: A censer.
- ▶ Earth: A 6" diameter stone.
- ▶ Fire: A brazier.
- ▶ Water: A 3' diameter bowl.

Usage: The items may be used as follows:

- ▶ Frequency: The summoning power may only be used once per day.
- ▶ Before use: The device must be prepared. This takes one turn.
- ▶ Activation: Once prepared, activating the device takes one round.
- ▶ Summoned elemental: A 12 HD elemental (see Classic Fantasy: Monsters) is conjured to do the summoner's bidding.
- ▶ Command over the elemental: Works as described in the magic-user spell conjure elemental (see Classic Fantasy: Cleric and Magic-User Spells).

Elven Cloak and Boots

A set of enchanted boots and a matching cloak, of elven origin.

- ▶ Stealth: The wearer of the boots is able to move silently.
- ▶ Near invisibility: The wearer of the cloak is rendered almost invisible: there is only a 1-in-6 chance of them being spotted.
- ▶ Attacking: The cloak's power of invisibility is nullified for one turn, if the wearer attacks.

Flying Carpet

An enchanted carpet that can fly through the air, carrying up to three passengers (and their gear). The movement rate depends on the number of passengers:

- ▶ 1 passenger: 300' (100').
- ▶ 2 passengers: 240' (80').
- ▶ 3 passengers: 180' (60').

Gauntlets of Ogre Power

A character who wears these gauntlets has a Strength score of 18. This grants all the usual bonuses, including:

- ▶ Melee attacks: +3 bonus to attack and damage rolls, in melee.
- ▶ Unarmed attacks: Deal 1d2+3 damage.

Encumbrance: If using the optional rules for detailed encumbrance (see Time, Weight, Movement in Core Rules):

- ▶ Extra weight: The character's ability to carry weight is increased by 1,000 coins. (i.e. the character can carry 1,400 coins without becoming encumbered.)

Girdle of Giant Strength

A character who wears this girdle gains the strength of a hill giant.

- ▶ Combat ability: The wearer's ability in combat is augmented: the character attacks as an 8 Hit Dice monster. (If the character already has better attack probabilities, the girdle does not alter these.)
- ▶ Damage: The wearer inflicts 2d8 damage in combat, or twice normal damage, if using the optional variable weapon damage rules (see Combat in Core Rules).

Helm of Alignment Changing

A beautifully crafted but cursed helmet.

- ▶ Putting on the helmet: Instantly causes the wearer's alignment to change. The new alignment is determined at random.
- ▶ Removing: The curse is such that the wearer cannot remove the helmet, once in place, and will resist attempts to remove it.
- ▶ Dispelling: The curse can be removed by magic (e.g. remove curse), or (at the referee's option) by performing a special quest.

Helm of Reading Languages and Magic

A fragile helmet that grants the wearer the ability to read writing of all kinds.

- ▶ Normal text: Text in any language can be understood.
- ▶ Magical text: Even magical writing is comprehensible. (This does not grant the ability to cast spells, however.)
- ▶ Fragility: Each time the wearer is hit, there is a 1-in-10 chance of the helm being destroyed. If the wearer is killed, the helm is destroyed.

Helm of Telepathy

A beautifully crafted helmet that grants the magical ability of telepathy: reading and sending thoughts.

- ▶ Range: The range of the power is 90'.
- ▶ Concentration: To read a creature's thoughts, the wearer must remain still and concentrate on that creature.
- ▶ Comprehension: The creature's thoughts are made comprehensible to the wearer of the helm.
- ▶ Bidirectional communication: The wearer may initiate bidirectional, telepathic communication, though the creature is not compelled to respond.

Helm of Teleportation

A magical helm that gives an arcane spellcaster the ability to cast the teleport spell (see Classic Fantasy: Cleric and Magic-User Spells).

- ▶ Subject: The wearer may teleport himself, another creature, or an object.
- ▶ Resisting: If used on another creature or object, a save versus spells is allowed to resist being teleported.
- ▶ When first found: The helm's power is usable only once.
- ▶ Recharging: To be used again, a teleport spell must be cast upon the helm.
- ▶ Once recharged: The wearer may use the helm an unlimited number of times (at most once per round). If the helm is used on an unwilling subject, it once again loses its power and must be recharged, as above, to be used again.

Horn of Blasting

A horn that can be blown to release a blast of destructive noise.

- ▶ Creatures: Within a 100' long cone (20' wide at the end) suffer 2d6 damage.
- ▶ Deafness: Affected creatures are also deafened for one turn (save versus spells to avoid).
- ▶ Buildings: At the referee's discretion, the horn may also be able to damage objects and buildings (e.g. a single blast might be enough to destroy a simple cottage; a 10' section of castle wall might require three blasts).
- ▶ Frequency: The horn may be used once per turn.

Medallion of ESP 30'

A medallion on a chain, enchanted with the power of reading thoughts.

- Focus: By concentrating for 1 round, the wearer may target a creature within 30'.
- Resisting: At the referee's option, the target may save versus spells to resist.
- Concentration: While reading thoughts, the wearer may move, but cannot cast spells or attack.
- Misfires: The medallion is not entirely reliable. Per usage, there is a 1-in-6 chance of it misfiring, instead sending the wearer's thoughts to all within 30'.

Medallion of ESP 90'

A medallion on a chain, enchanted with the power of reading thoughts. This works in the same way as the magic-user spell ESP (see Classic Fantasy: Cleric and Magic-User Spells).

Mirror of Life Trapping

A mirror with the ability to magically trap living creatures behind its pane.

- Gazing into the mirror: Any creature of human size or smaller who gazes into the mirror is sucked inside (save versus spells to resist), with all its belongings.
- Capacity: Up to 20 creatures can be trapped in the mirror. When this number is reached, it becomes safe to look into the mirror.
- Inside the mirror: A creature will live indefinitely, without the need for air or sustenance, and unaffected by ageing.
- Communication: Trapped creatures may converse with those outside, but are utterly powerless.
- Breaking the mirror: Releases those trapped.

Rope of Climbing

A coil of thin, strong rope, 50' in length.

- Commanding: The owner may command it to climb in any direction.
- Attaching: The rope can also be commanded to attach to a surface.
- Load: Up to 10,000 coins of weight can be suspended from the rope.

Scarab of Protection

Protects the bearer from baleful magic.

- Curses: Of all kinds are nullified.
- Finger of death: (see Classic Fantasy: Cleric and Magic-User Spells) is nullified.
- Charges: The scarab's enchantment works 2d6 times before it is spent.

- Resisting: The subject may save versus spells (with a –2 penalty) to resist.
- Maximum subjects: Up to 6 Hit Dice of humans may be charmed in this way. Normal humans count as ½ HD.
- Charmed individuals: Regard the character as a trusted friend, and will come to their defence. Subjects will obey the character's commands, as long as these are not obviously harmful and do not contradict the subject's alignment.
- Duration: The charm lasts until dispelled, until the ring is removed, or until the wearer cancels it.

Ring of Controlling Plants

Grants the power to control plants.

- Affects: All plants (including plant monsters) in a 10' square area.

- Concentration: The effect lasts as long as the wearer of the ring concentrates.

Ring of Delusion

The wearer believes they are under the effects of another type of magic ring.

- Type: The other type of ring should be determined by the referee (e.g. a ring of protection or a ring of spell turning).
- Describing: The referee should try to trick the player into believing that the character is under the effects of the other ring, only revealing the truth at some vital juncture.

Ring of Djinni Summoning

This ring grants the power to summon a djinni (Classic Fantasy: Monsters).

- Duration of service: The djinni will serve the character who summoned it for up to 24 hours.

Ring of Protection

Grants a measure of protection from harm:

- Armour Class: A +1 AC bonus.
- Saving throws: A +1 bonus to all saves.

Ring of Protection, 5' Radius

Allies within 5' of the wearer also benefit from the ring's protective power. For example, two characters fighting beside the wearer of the ring would gain the protective benefit.

Ring of Regeneration

The wearer heals at an accelerated rate.

- Rate: The wearer regains 1 hit point per round.
- Severed limbs: Will also regrow. The rate depends on the size of the limb (e.g. a finger may regrow in one day, while a whole limb may take a week).
- Fire or acid damage: Cannot be regenerated.
- Death: The ring does not function if the wearer is reduced to 0 or less hit points.

Ring of Spell Storing

Stores a number of magical spells that the wearer can release on command.

- Knowledge: The wearer of the ring knows which spells it contains.
- Triggering: The wearer of the ring can trigger the spells at will (up to one spell per round).
- Caster level: For spells whose effects vary by the level of the caster, the wearer of the ring is treated as a caster of the lowest level required to cast the spell.
- Recharging: Once a spell is triggered, it may not be reused until it is recharged—the expired spell must be cast directly onto the ring.

Ring of Spell Turning

Spells cast on the wearer of this ring are reflected back onto the caster.

- Charges: After 2d6 spells are reflected, the ring loses its power.

Ring of Telekinesis

Grants the power to move objects or creatures within 120' by concentrating.

Ring of Wishes

- ▶ Usage frequency: May be used at most once per turn.

- Undead creatures: Are unaffected by the power of this staff.

Staves in Melee

Although magic-users are generally only allowed to use daggers in combat, they are able to use the staff of power, staff of striking, and staff of wizardry in melee.

All in its path suffer 2d6 damage. Creatures with less than 2HD are swept aside (save versus death to avoid).

Wand of Lightning Bolts

Conjures strokes of powerful electricity:

- ▶ Point of origin: A lightning bolt may emanate from a point up to 180' distant.

Sentient Swords

Some magic swords have an innate intelligence and personality, along with other special powers. See Sentient Swords, p38, for rules for determining the special powers of a sentient sword.

Probability: If the referee wishes to randomly determine whether a magic sword is intelligent, the probability is 30%.

Swords With a Special Purpose

Some magic swords are imbued with a special purpose. Such swords are extremely powerful and are always sentient. See Sentient Swords, p38, for rules for determining the powers of a sword with a special purpose.

Probability: There is a 1-in-20 chance of a magic sword having a special purpose. The referee may choose to only place such swords by design, rather than rolling this chance randomly.

Sword +1, Energy Drain

Drains the life energy of its victims.

► On a successful hit: The wielder may command the sword to drain the victim's life energy.

► Energy drain: In addition to suffering normal damage, the target permanently loses one experience level (or Hit Die). This incurs a loss of one Hit Die of hit points, as well as all other benefits due to the drained level (e.g. spells, saving throws, etc.). A character's XP is reduced to the lowest amount for the new level. A person drained of all levels dies.

► Charges: The sword may drain a total of 1d4+4 levels. Once this many levels have been drained, it becomes a normal magical sword +1.

Sword +1, Flaming

Bursts into flames, on command. When flaming:

► Casts light: In 30' radius.

► Can set things alight: Treated as a torch, for purposes of setting things on fire (e.g. a web spell).

► Inflicts fire damage: Which may have special effects on certain creatures.

► Grants an attack bonus: Against certain types of creature:

- a. +2 vs trolls (or other creatures that cannot regenerate fire damage).
- b. +2 vs pegasi, hippogriffs, and rocs (or other bird-like creatures).
- c. +3 vs treants (or other plant-based creatures).
- d. +3 vs undead.

► Duration: The sword blazes until commanded to cease.

Sword +1, Light

On command, produces light in a 30' radius.

Sword +2, Charm Person

Grants the wielder the ability to charm other people.

► Effect: This works in the same way as the magic-user spell charm person (see Classic Fantasy: Cleric and Magic-User Spells).

► Usage frequency: The power may be used up to three times a week.

Sword +1, Locate Objects

Grants the wielder the ability to detect the presence of objects within 120'.

► Effect: This works in the same way as the magic-user spell locate object (see Classic Fantasy: Cleric and Magic-User Spells).

► Usage frequency: The power may be used once per day.

Sword +1, Wishes

Has the power to grant the wielder's wishes (see Wishes, under Magic Items in Core Rules).

► Charges: The sword grants a total of 1d4 wishes.

► Wishing: The wish must be spoken out loud by the wielder of the sword.

SENTIENT SWORDS

If a magic sword possesses sentience (see Swords, p34 for the likelihood), the procedure on this page may be used to determine its powers. (Alternatively, the referee may select its qualities as desired.)

Rolling a Sentient Sword

1. Special purpose: If the sword has a special purpose, see Special Purpose, p43 to determine what it is.
2. Intelligence and personality: The sword's INT is 1d6+6. (Swords imbued with a special purpose always have INT 12.) The sword has its own personality and should be played as an NPC.
3. Communication: The sword's INT determines the means by which it can communicate. See the table to the right.
 - a. Empathy: The sword cannot communicate directly, but empathically informs the wielder of its powers and how to use them.
 - b. Speech: The sword speaks out loud. The number of languages it knows is indicated by rolling on the languages table, to the right. Languages should be selected by the referee.
 - c. Reading: The sword can read all languages it can speak, as well as magical inscriptions.
4. Alignment: See the table to the right.
5. Powers: The sword's INT determines the number of powers it has. See the table to the right. Powers are described in the following pages.
6. Ego: Sentient swords have an Ego rating—a measure of their force of personality. This is rolled on 1d12.

Swords imbued with a special purpose always have an Ego of 12.

Using a Sentient Sword

Sentient swords grant the wielder special powers beyond those of a normal magic sword, but using one also carries risks.

Activating Powers

- In hand: To use a power, the sword must be in the wielder's hand.
- Concentration: The wielder must concentrate to activate a power.

Alignment

The alignment of the sword can only be determined by touching it. Doing so may incur damage, if the character is of a different alignment to the sword:

- Lawful swords: Inflict 1d6 damage per round to neutral characters, and 2d6 per round to chaotic characters.
- Neutral swords: Inflict 1d6 damage per round to non-neutral characters.
- Chaotic swords: Inflict 1d6 damage per round to neutral characters, and 2d6 per round to lawful characters.

Control

A sentient sword has its own personality, and can, at times, attempt to exercise control over the person who wields it. A control check (see below) is triggered in any of the following circumstances:

- First contact: Upon the character first touching the sword.
- Wounded: When the character is reduced to half hit points or less.
- Jealousy: When another magic weapon comes into the character's possession.
- Alignment difference: Upon every use, if the sword and the character are of different alignments.
- Special purpose: If the sword has a special purpose: every time the special purpose is applicable. (e.g. when encountering a character or creature of the type the sword is designed to slay.)

Control Checks

When one of the aforementioned circumstances occurs, a control check is required:

1. Determine the sword's Will score:
 - a. The sum of its INT and Ego.
 - b. Plus one for each extraordinary power the sword has.
 - c. Plus 1d10, if the sword and the wielder are of different alignments.
2. Determine the wielder's Will score:
 - a. The sum of STR and WIS scores.
 - b. If the character has less than full hit points, Will is reduced by 1d4 (or 2d4, if the character has less than half hit points).
3. Compare the Will scores. If the sword's Will score is higher, it takes control of the character's actions.

When the Sword Takes Control

The referee determines the behaviour of the character, via the sword, for example:

- Jealousy: Discarding other weapons, or ignoring newly discovered magic weapons.
- Glory: Charging into battle, to gain glory for the sword.
- Surrender: To a foe whom the sword deems either more worthy of possessing it or more susceptible to being controlled.
- Indulgence: Making lavish expenditures for the sword. Purchasing expensive sheaths, having jewels fitted, having enchantments and wards applied, etc. The sword may force the character to spend most of their money on such things!

When Control Ends

Once in control, the sword will only release the character when the circumstance that triggered the control check is over, or when the sword is otherwise satisfied.
