HARNESS MAGIC

Duration See the effect

You harness magical energy, measured in points; roll $1d6 + 3$ to determine how many points you gain. You can spend energy points to cast a spell you know instead of expending a casting of that spell, even if it has no castings remaining. You spend a number of points equal to the spell's rank (minimum 1). The effect ends when you expend the last energy point or when you complete a rest.

ARCANE RETRIBUTION

Duration 4 hours; see the effect

You gain a +5 bonus to Defense for the duration. The next time a creature within short range of you would get a success on an attack roll with a weapon against you, this effect ends and the success automatically becomes a failure. The triggering creature must make a Strength challenge roll. On a failure, it takes 10d6 damage, is moved 2d6 yards away from you, and falls prone. It takes half the damage on a success.
