242. More is good...all is better. [TFRA (p76)]
255. A wife is a luxury...a smart accountant a necessity. [TFRA (p77)]
261. A wealthy man can afford anything except a conscience. [TFRA (p78)]
263. Never allow doubt to tarnish your lust for latinum. [Rom, "The Bar Association"]
266. When in doubt, lie. [TFRA (p79)]
284. Deep down everyone's a Ferengi. [TFRA (p80)]
285. No good deed ever goes unpunished. [Quark, "The Collaborator"]

1. If they want their money back, give it to them. [Quark, "Prophet Motive"]
10. Greed is dead. [Quark, "Prophet Motive"]
21. Never place profit before friendship. [Rom, "Prophet Motive"]
22. Latinum tarnishes, but family is forever. [Rom, "Prophet Motive"]
23. Money can never replace dignity. [Rom, "Prophet Motive"]
285. A good deed is its own reward. [Rom, "Prophet Motive"]

The revised rules are from the "Prophet Motive," when the Prophets de-evolved Grand Nagus Zek into a Ferengi with a value system not based on profit. The rules that Zek declared were not accepted, and all copies were destroyed, after Zek was back to normal. TFRA indicates that the rule is from the paper back book The Ferengi Rules of Acquisition.

Though the book is an official one, the legitimacy of those rules is still questionable.
