

Cularin's Lady Senator, Lavina Wren

Oblivion's Kiss Scenario Supplement

By August Hahn and Morrie Mullins

August Hahn, author of Oblivion's Kiss (the December Living Force scenario), teams with Morrie Mullins, the campaign's plot director, to offer the third in our monthly series of supplements to the RPGA's newest scenarios. Senator Lavina Wren's sweeping new trade proposal is causing a stir in the Cularin system, amid concerns about her past, her power, and her personal life. This intriguing news brief, which ties in with Oblivion's Kiss, raises as many questions as it answers.

... and welcome back to Eye on Cularin. In the news today, Senator Wren is making waves on Coruscant with a sweeping proposal that would bring reform to the way corporations conduct trade in-system. These reforms come after a full inquiry into system economics ordered by the Supreme Chancellor.

The proposal has serious ramifications for big businesses like Sorosuub and the Metatheran Cartel, who recently clashed over an interrupted celebration. Details on the disagreement are currently classified under political decree. More on this, and on those reforms, as we receive details from our correspondents.

Oblivion's Kiss* Adventure Summary

When an important member of Cularin's government asks for a favor, you are caught up in a race against time to save lives and bring the guilty to justice. But when your true enemy is the sweet kiss of Oblivion, who really wants to be saved? An adventure for Living Force heroes of levels 1 through 6. By August Hahn.

For those who may not know the name, Lavina Wren has been serving as Cularin's Republic Senator for three years. Her administration has been responsible for policies like our current treaty with the Tarasin and the recent taxation changes our companies have been enjoying.

Personally, Senator Wren leads a quiet life and little is known about her private affairs. Social analyst Sersae Jenreal will be running an exposé on the lady later this year. Is she actually a descendant of Reidi Artom? How much influence does she really have in the Senate? What is the source of the tension between her administration and the Jedi Academy? Be sure to set your comms for that broadcast.

More is known about her aide, Merik Darou. A frequent visitor to Gadrin and Hedrett, Senator Wren's personal assistant is known for his gregarious appetite for entertainment. Currently on Cularin, Merik Darou was unavailable when we tried to contact him for his business schedule.
