With a poorly educated soldier base and a mix of Soviet and western training it is surprising that Egypt fields as good a standing army as it does. The greatest deficiency, as it has always been, is the higher levels of command.

Option: Egypt maintains several airborne units. Add Parachute 30 (new Total 170/Package 155)

Option: A majority of Egypt's infantry units are mechanized, utilizing a wide mix of western, Soviet, and indigenous vehicles. Add Military Science/Armor Tactics 10, General Mech 10, Drive/Track 10 (new Total 165/Package 150)
